10 members of the public
- CLERK: G Blackshaw
- APOLOGIES: None

3.0 Welcome by Chairman

PC welcomed parishioners and thanked everyone for their support

3.1 The Minutes:

PC introduced the minutes from the 2013 APM and signed them off as a true copy

3.2 Matters Arising

None

3.3 Chairman's Report

PC introduced Summary of Achievements and set targets for the coming year – see Attached

3.4 Review of Yearly Accounts

PC issued summary and said that TPC would be looking at ways to economise next year. Accounts will be available to the public to view and the Clerk will post details of how to access them on the Notice Boards within the next two days.

3.5 Precept for 2014/15

£4,664.00 – an increase of £305.00.

3.6 Comments from Floor

A parishioner suggested that a plaque be commissioned and erected to acknowledge the 3 parishioners who died in WW1.

It was agreed that this would be appropriate and the details would be discussed at the next TPC meeting. The parishioner would forward all the information to CW who would circulate via the website and contact would be made with local villager, Alastair Macleay who may also be able to provide more background information. Thanks were expressed for this

3.7 Election of Chairman

PT proposed PC seconded by CM. PC accepted post of Chairman for the year 2014/2015.

The meeting closed at 7.25. The next meeting will be held in May 2014
