The Trudoxhill News Letter

Edition 023 March 2014

The White Hart Inn-itiative.

The passing of John Hill has spurred on Graeme Barry to organise a public defibrillator for Trudoxhill. For more information inquire at The White Hart Inn. We also applauded the move and hope all will assist if and when required. Graeme will be able to advise on any fund raising activities,

The Past Is Always Present Within Us

Helen Frost requests information on images from the past.

She believe these photographs were taken in Somerset in the early 1920's. If you can help her please reply via e-mail helen@garnerbank.co.uk. or when next you see her.

Helen is particularly interested in the seated lady third form the left

Possible names linked with the family of Poole are Starr and Nagle.

Greetings

A Happy and prosperous new year to all.

Hello there, my name is John and I have been asked to take up the post of editor of the Trudoxhill News Letter from Georgie who has done such an excellent job and needs a break..

I agree that it is a piece of Trudoxhill history and has been well serviced by the previous editors, layout team, printers, and our postie Paul and should continue. THAT NEEDS YOUR HELP!

If you have anything to report in the YOUR VIEW please contact me argybargyab@gmail.com
